Session 2: Genesis 2:15, 19-20; Psalm 8; Eden and the Naming of the Animals (Caring for God's World)

Session 3: Luke 11:9-13; Ask, Seek, Knock (Why Pray?)

Session 4: Luke 18:1-8; Parable of the Judge and the Widow (How to Pray)

Session 5: Luke 11:1-4; (The Lord's Prayer)

Pass It On

Here are some ideas for how you might engage your child in a faith discussion:

- Share with your child a time when you "saw Jesus" in the words or actions of someone else. (Easter Session)
- Share with your child some details about your work life. What exactly is it that you do? What do you enjoy about your work? What don't you enjoy? If you have not already done so, decide together on some item of "work" your child could start to be responsible for at home. (Session 1)
- Commit as a family to one specific action you will do to "care for the world." Be sure to ask your child for ideas and input. (Session 2)
- Share honestly with your child about your prayer life. When do you pray? Where do you pray? Why do you pray (or why don't you)? What do you often thank God for? What do you often ask God for? What would you like to change about your prayer life? (Session 3)
- Share with your child a time when you prayed to God from your heart and felt that, because of the events or experiences that followed, God had indeed listened to your prayer. (Session 4)
- Share with your child the version of the Lord's Prayer you are most familiar with by saying it aloud (from memory if possible). If you can remember, share where and when you first learned the Lord's Prayer. Consider using the Lord's Prayer before family meals for the next month. (Session 5)

Sincerely,

Open Our Eyes

Once there was a man whose life was one of misery. The days were cloudy and the nights were long. Henry didn't want to be unhappy, but he was. With the passing of the years, his life had changed. His children were grown. The neighborhood was different. The city seemed harsher.

He was unhappy. He decided to ask his minister what was wrong.

"Am I unhappy for some sin I have committed?"

"Yes," the wise pastor replied. "You have sinned."

"And what might that sin be?"

"Ignorance," came the reply. "The sin of ignorance. One of your neighbors is the Messiah in disguise, and you have not seen him."

The old man left the office stunned. "The Messiah is one of my neighbors?" He began to think who it might be.

Tom the butcher? No, he's too lazy. Mary, my cousin down the street? No, too much pride. Aaron the paper-boy? No, too indulgent. The man was confounded. Every person he knew had defects. But one was the Messiah. He began to look for him.

He began to notice things he hadn't seen. The grocer often carried sacks to the cars of older ladies. Maybe he is the Messiah. The officer at the corner always had a smile for the kids. Could it be? And the young couple who'd moved next door. How kind they are to their cat. Maybe one of them . . .

With time he saw things in people he'd never seen. And with time his outlook began to change. The bounce returned to his step. His eyes took on a friendly sparkle. When others spoke he listened. After all, he might be listening to the Messiah. When anyone asked for help, he responded; after all this might be the Messiah needing assistance.

The change of attitude was so significant that someone asked him why he was so happy. "I don't know," he answered. "All I know is that things changed when I started looking for God."

Prayer Bingo

I often pray with my eyes open.	I pray before bed at night.	I like to pray the Lord's Prayer.	I use my own words when I pray.
I believe that God hears all my prayers.	I talk to God about anything and everything.	I like to sing prayer songs.	Sometimes I ask God why bad things happen.
I pray before (almost) every meal.	I believe prayer is important every day.	I like to read prayers.	I usually pray when I don't know what to do about a problem.
Prayer makes a big difference in my life.	I often kneel when I pray.	Sometimes I ask God for stuff when I pray.	I don't always like praying out loud.

Luke 11:9-13
