Time to Pack!

What do you think Abraham and Sarah packed for their long trip? What on a trip far away? Pack this suitcase with pictures of your favorite would you bring e things.

Dear Family:

Imagine Abraham and Sarah's big move with your child as you read the story together. Tell your child about a time you started something new and had to trust God's promise to provide for you too!

Adventures with God

Based on Genesis 12:1-9

A long time ago—way before there were cars or computers or houses or apartments—an old man and an old woman named Abraham and Sarah lived in a village of tents.

One day, God came to tell Abraham two really important things.

The first thing God told Abraham was, "I want you to move far, far away. Leave your country, leave your land, leave your relatives, and go to the land that I will show you."

Then God said, "Abraham, you and Sarah belong to me. I've chosen you to be my people. I'm going to bless you and your family in wonderful ways. You are going to have a big family—too many to count, even more than the stars in the sky! I'll use you to help the whole world know that I am God."

Abraham did what God asked him to do. He and Sarah and all of their helpers folded their tents, rolled up the blankets, gathered their animals, packed their clothes, and began the long trip to the place God chose for them. There were many hot and dusty days, but they trusted God to take care of them.

Dear Family:

Grab two towels and sing this story song with your child. Invite your child to find today's story symbol in the GOD'S BIG STORY cards—where you'll find more fun things to do!

Story Song

Based on Genesis 18:1-15; 21:1-7

Abraham and Sarah in their tent,
in their tent, in their tent,
Abraham and Sarah in their tent—
we believe God's promises!

Abraham and Sarah served their guests,
served their guests, served their guests,
Abraham and Sarah served their guests.
We believe God's promises!

This is the way that Sarah laughed,
Sarah laughed, Sarah laughed.
This is the way that Sarah laughed,
but we believe God's promises!

This is how Sarah rocks her baby,
rocks her baby, rocks her baby.
This is how Sarah rocks her baby—
yes, we believe God's promises!
