Dear Family,

We're about to begin another exciting six-session unit—this new series of lessons is called “Imagine . . . Walking with Jesus” and it invites us to dwell in God’s story as we learn more about Jesus’ great power and love—for the people of his day and for us. We’ll be hearing stories about Jesus’ miracles, his healing power, and his love (especially for children).

Each week your child will bring home a Show and Share paper that includes the story for the day. Your child will be looking for someone to share it with—and you’ll enjoy being one of those people! By retelling the story your child will remember it—and you’ll find new ways to learn about and live in Jesus’ love together.

One of the most meaningful stories in this unit tells of Jesus welcoming the children—and our Memory Challenge (Mark 10:14b, 16) is based on it. One of the ways we’ll be reinforcing the truth of Jesus’ love for kids is by singing the song “Let the Little Children Come.” It is available on the DwellSongs CD (www.faihalive.com/resources.org) or by download at www.dwellcurriculum.org if you’d like to sing it along with your child.

Please pray for us as we learn and grow closer to Jesus together. And, if you have any questions or want to learn more, please be in touch—or come visit!

Sincerely,

P.S. Check out www.nurturekidsfaith.org for practical Christian parenting tips, recommended resources, and more! If you want to learn more about Dwell, visit www.dwellcurriculum.org.

“Let the little children come to me, and do not hinder them, for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these.” And he took the children in his arms, put his hands on them and blessed them.

—Mark 10:14b, 16, NIV

“Let the little children come to me; do not stop them; for it is to such as these that the kingdom of God belongs.” And he took them up in his arms, laid his hands on them, and blessed them.

—Mark 10:14b, 16, NRSV
